

Physical activity & PE sessions provide the most direct impacts upon life longevity & a child's health & well-being & should therefore form the cornerstone of developing a successful movement culture.

Langdown, 2021